CAMP MANITO-WISH YMCA 2024 FINANCIAL REPORT

FROM OUR CEO

We are excited to share with you the 2024 Camp Manito-wish YMCA Annual Report. We completed our 106th summer. For Judy, the first as the eighth leader of Camp and for Betsy the last year of a two-year term as President of the Board of Directors. Camp is always evolving while holding true to its core, our Mission, Vision and Commitment.

Camp Manito-wish provides transformative experiences for participants in all of our program offerings. Developing leadership skills, character development, lifelong friendships while enjoying nature and disconnecting from technology are all outcomes of a Manito-wish experience. We are grateful for the amazing support of Camp through our Annual Fund Drive, Endowment Funds, In-Kind Gifts, Matching Funds, and Restricted Funds. Your contributions allow us to provide exceptional staff, programming and facilities while enabling access to these experiences to be available to all, regardless of their ability to pay.

Our Manito-wish camp community inspires us through their generosity and commitment to continue offering high quality programming to all which reflects the compassionate and caring values that are core to our mission. We are appreciative for all of you for your support.

Thank you for your care and passion for this place, the magic it creates and the people in it.

Judy Tegtmeyer
CEO
CAMP MANITO-WISH YMCA

Betsy Ziegler
Board President 2022-24
CAMP MANITO-WISH YMCA

“As a counselor, it’s inspiring to see a first-time camper come in feeling apprehensive and a bit reserved. However, over the course of three weeks, it is uplifting to watch the campers persevere through challenges, celebrate their accomplishments, and achieve significant goals. It is truly rewarding to witness their growth during their time at Camp.”

VALUE OF A MANITO-WISH EXPERIENCE

Throughout my entire life, Camp Manito-wish has been a consistent source of growth, as well as comfort. As a participant, Camp taught me how to have confidence in myself and my abilities, how to lead with compassion and empathy, and what it means to show up for the people around you. Being able to experience a myriad of activities, natural sights, and individuals I wouldn't have been able to in any other setting encouraged me to be creative and adventurous with my interests.

The trail experience taught me how to be comfortable with being uncomfortable, that I am strong enough to handle any adversity, I encounter (especially with the help of a good support network), and showed me nature in its rawest, most beautiful form.

The opportunity to learn from my counselors, program staff, and trips staff—the primary role models of my childhood—made me into a compassionate leader, a more well-rounded, confident person, and a more empathetic, loyal friend. As a staff member, these skills were honed, and appreciations were deepened.

Over the past three summers, I've gained an entirely new perspective on and appreciation for the Camp experience. I've watched my participants on the archery range, in my cabin, packing out, and on trail encounter challenges of their own and grow through them all the same. Watching them hone their skills, become more self-assured, and forge the same kinds of lifelong friendships I did both in camp and on staff is one of the most incredible privileges I've been afforded in this life, and I can't even begin to put into words how grateful I am for it. I tell my kids this, but as much as we (hopefully) teach them, they've taught us so much more, and getting to be a part of their Manito-wish experiences has been the honor of a lifetime. Everyone in my life knows about Camp—they hear my endless stories, endure my anxious anticipation of a contract, and comfort me when I miss it or the folks I met there something awful—but to have firsthand experienced something so life-altering in each season of my life so far can't be described as anything other than immensely special. I feel incredibly lucky to call Camp Manito-wish home and the people there my family.

Established in 2001, it has grown to include over 450 members who are committed to preserving Camp's legacy. To become a member, one must contribute $10,000 or more to the Endowment Fund by making a deferred gift as part of an estate plan or a cash donation.

If you are interested in joining the Fires of Friendship Circle, it is recommended to contact your lawyer or financial advisor for guidance on creating a deferred gift. Contact the Development Office at (715) 385-2312 to learn more about how to make long term positive impact at Camp Manito-wish YMCA.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS

The Camp Manito-wish YMCA Endowment Fund has been a vital part of the Manito-wish community for almost 50 years. It has been instrumental in ensuring a strong future for Camp, while also benefiting campers, staff, and families. The Endowment Fund has been able to achieve this through contributions to General Funds, Building Funds, Campership Funds, Staff Funds, and Programs Funds. This has helped to create a solid foundation that will continue to serve the Manito-wish community for generations to come.

These funds help to provide Manito-wish participants and staff the tools and experiences they need to become confident and capable leaders. Lives have been, and will continue to be, changed because of these funds.
